

Social life and customs

LADIES FIRE AUXILIARY

A meeting of the Ladies Fire Auxiliary was held at the Central Fire Station on Oct. 17. Capt. Phyllis Thibodeau opened the meeting with a prayer, which was followed by reports and other business. The following committees were appointed: Emergency - Mary Crocker, Dolly Paulding and Kit Morse. Refreshments - Hope Bolton and Margaret Bradford. The door prize was won by Nancy Brock. Refreshments served by Rita Blanchard and Nancy Bennett, closed the meeting.

Grange Whist

Kay Finigan was high scorer at the Grange whist. Other prizewinners were Helen Fitts, Waldo Reed, Anna Nourse, Edna Reed, George Finigan, Vivian S. Kemp, H.R. Kemp, Vivian J. Kemp and J.G. Basler.

Helen Pickering won the door prize and special prizes went to Vivian S. Kemp and Emily McWade. Low scorers were Dorothy Moody and Johnny Fitts.

Grange

Master George Moody presided at the Oct. 20 meeting of Duxbury Grange. Mrs. Beatrice Longmire, overseer of Mayflower South Pomona, was escorted to a seat at the right of the Master. Mrs. Mabel Chandler asked permission to use Grange Hall for Halloween parties for 4-H members on Oct. 29 for young children, and Oct. 30 for teenagers.

Lecturer Dorothy Moody gave Halloween readings.

Francis Smith discussed sales taxes and Mrs. Longmire spoke.

DAISY CLUB

The Duxborough Daisy Club were guests of Mrs. Lucy Tobin of Humarock on Oct. 19. Pres. Elsie Randall opened the meeting with prayer and flag salute.

Members will donate to the Veterans' gift shop; also to provide a Thanksgiving dinner for a needy family.

The Nov. 15 meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Mary Zahn in Kingston.

The husband of Mrs. Lucy Miller was reported in the hospital. Cheer cards were sent to him.

Taking part in the reading program were Lucy Tobin, Ruth Bailey, Clara McAuliffe, Elsie Randall and Ethel McAuliffe.

The meeting closed with the mizpah.

DUXBURY CLIPPER

Thursday, October 27, 1966